

Middlesex at war - 1939 to 1945

This is the story of Middlesex Freemasonry during the last world war, from which the Province emerged stronger than ever, due to the efforts of many unsung heroes, some of whom gave their lives that we might enjoy our Craft membership today. Amusing incidents, catastrophes and a further chapter in the Provincial history